With a 180 miles

you can press my button to see faster than the night fire

I can make you bleed

On stealth and undercover

I can kill all of you better beware .

It's the dawn of a new future weapon

I'm after your soul

I'm after your soul

It's surprise speed and violence of action

I'm at the controls death at the controls.

Higher than a mile my weaponology

I can take you out babe with pinpoint accuracy riding in the raptor danger to the max shoot you if you're flying by the power of my attack.

It's the dawn of a new future weapon

I'm after your soul

Living in this desert, living in slime the air you breath is poisonous fire the sounds you hear destroy the tune the sounds you hear destroy the... "wow yeah".
