

Birdy, All You Never Say

I've been searching
Have you found many things?
Time for learning,
Why have I not learnt a thing?

Words with no meaning
Have kept me dreaming
But they don't tell me anything
And all you never say is that you love me so
All I never know is if you want me oh
If only I could look into your mind
Maybe then I'd find a sign of all I want to hear you say to me
To me

Are you uncertain?
Or just scared to drop your guard?
Have you been broken?
Are you afraid to show your heart?

Life can be unkind
But only sometimes you're giving up before you start

And all you never say is that you love me so
All I never know is if you want me oh
If only I could look into your mind
Maybe then I'd find a sign of all I want to hear you say to me
To me
