

Birdy, Tee Shirt

In the morning when you wake up I like to believe you are thinking of me
and when the sun comes through your window I like to believe you've been dreaming of me

dreaming

I know
cause I've spent
half this morning
thinking about the t-shirt you sleep in
I should know
cause I'd spend
oh the whole day
listening to your message I'm keeping
and never deleting

When I saw you
everyone knew I liked the affect that you had on my eyes
But no one else heard
the way of your words or felt the affect that they have on my mind

falling
I know
cause I've spent
thinking about the t-shirt you sleep in
I should know
cause I'd spend
listening to your message I'm keeping
and never deleting
