

Bishop Nehru, You Stressin (prod. Disclosure)

The master of the 16 bars and leaving rappers starving Sickening punch lines leave em salty like all we showing love people on him
Hold applause in till after let the bars in
To your noggin this rap game I'm conquering
Six 16's left teens fleeing from the market
Got styles that spark the mind and brain
The lines I'm saying is sane yours are nothing, plain Like what you saying?
