

Bitter Sweet, A Moment

Hold me dear
Don't let go I am only here for a moment
Take your time
While we bask in the sweet divine of the moment
What a moment
Say you love me, tell me anything
Tomorrow may not bring another chance to know the sweetness
Of these memories
What am I to do, but drink in all of you
Before the morning comes and we are forced to say adieu
Hold my gaze
Feel the warmth of our souls embrace for a moment
Such a moment
Rays of sunlight sparkle through the clouds
Melting all our doubts into this earth we tiptoe on so
Very carefully
The fountain of our youth, exposed behind the truth
So let us taste this meal that I've prepared with love for you
We are here to do what we're supposed to
Hold me dear
Don't let go I am only here for a moment
Drink me in
This may be the last time we live such a moment
What a moment
Hold me dear
Such a moment
