Bjork, Lilith

(feat. Plaid)

You can have me But I'll defend my child By spring that child will die

Oh deli owowow etc. Woo....

Moon... moon... moon...

I'm just so warm, Jennifer and I'm coming over to sa-bo-tage our distance

Moon will leave me on Moon will guide me through, baby Moon will guide me through Moon will turn me on

I just don't care anymore 'Cause my chord is calling It's me and truth It's home I'm at home with thruth alone

Moon will leave me on Moon will guide us through Moon will guide us through, baby Moon will turn me on

The moon It guides me on baby There's absolutely no doubt

Me and truth It's home I'm at home with truth alone
