

Bjork, Possibly Maybe

your flirt finds me out teases the crack in me smittens me with hope

possibly maybe probably love as much as i definitely enjoy solitude i wouldn't mind perhaps spending little time with you sometimes

sometimes

uncertainly excites me baby
who knows what's going to happen? lottery or car crash or you'll join a cult

mon petit vulcan you're eruptions and disasters
i keep calm
admiring your lava

since we broke up i'm using lipstick again i'll suck my tongue
as a remembrance of you
