

Black Light Burns, I Have A Need

We wake, wake on the inside
I must have a need to be terrorized
So let's walk down the same path
To the hole deep in the hollow

We stand, stand on the edge again
Too afraid to turn back and jump in There's a storm brewing like a ceiling
But I'll never spit out the feeling

This dark fever is unstoppable
This burning chill is unstoppable
This blackest wish has taken hold
I'm sorry it cannot be controlled

You're too far, far gone to be mine
Wherever I go you're never on time
It's too dark, too black to be a star
I'll go wherever you are

We slept, slept here for too long
We see, see what we did wrong
I'll never let it paralyze me again
I wanna bleed, like it's over

x2:
This dark fever is unstoppable
This burning chill is unstoppable
This blackest wish has taken hold
I'm sorry it cannot be controlled

x2:
This dark fever is unstoppable
This burning chill is unstoppable
This blackest wish has taken hold
I'm sorry it cannot be controlled

x3:
Cannot be controlled

It cannot be controlled
It cannot be controlled
No, no, no
It cannot be controlled
