

Black My Heart, My Way

i think i might be beat i watch my blood hit the ground it's only been one round beat down broken you can break my bones but you'll never get a word outta me my life my way this is me fight for your life i am who i am and that all i can be so dont fucking tell me i do what i do your not my judge fight for your life i am who i am and that all that i am
