

Black River, Revolution

I work in the dark
I live in a cage
I am carrying my fury ever day
I am follow the rules
but nothing's mine
it doesn't resemble with real life

we stay for Revolution
I have enough
I don't care no more
we stay for Revolution
realise the anger

no more lies
I am sick of it all
I can't be who I am,
not the slave
how rebel I am I feel it's time for revolution
