

Blackfield, Pills

There's a pill for every hour
These days you don't have to feel
Tiptoeing all your fears and make them disappear
There's a pill for every hour
tiptoeing all your fears s and make them disappear

In sight driving with no light tonight
They will get you? home
They will love the show
Visit an exist for the sacred smile
They will lead you to the door and cover on your house
The guilt in a day
