

BLACKPINK, Lovesick Girls

Lovesick Girls
Lovesick Girls

Endless night
Love trapped us in a windowless room
(Love)
What can we say
Long for love
Even though it hurts every time

Get hurt and break down
I don't know what's keeping me to hold on
If i leave away
I'll hate you in my pained state

We can't end it before it's over It's as if we've been waiting for this ago

Maybe it's all just for a moment
What are you looking for so aimlessly
But i don't care i'll do it over and over
I just need you in my life

We are the lovesick girl
You can't just end this love on your own
We are the lovesick girl
I am nothing without this pain
But we were born to be alone
Yeah we were born to be alone
we were born to be alone
but why we still looking for love

no love letters
no x and o's no love never my exes know
no diamond rings
that set in stone
didn't wanna be a princess,
i am prancelss
A prince not even on my list
Love is a drug that i quit
No doctor could help when i am lovesick

Maybe it's all just for a moment
Looking at you with my anxious gaze
You're all i need even if it hurts

We are the lovesick girl
You can't just end this love on your own
We are the lovesick girl
I am nothing without this pain

love is slippin and fallin' love is killin' your darlin' the fearless thrill returns once the pain subsides can't hear what you say i am happy with this pain

you pity me
but i pity you more for pitying me

We are the lovesick girl

lovesick girl
everyone eventually leaves
lovesick girl
i've become numb to crying
hurt over and over again
