

Blake Shelton, Here I Am

You were just some one
Some friend of mine said take her out
An' have yourselves a good time
To be honest I was far from over a broken heart
You were the furthest thing from my mind
And it didnt seem to matter to you
When I looked away when we were introduced
Cause you broke the ice with a killer smile
Ordered us a drink and we talked a while
And I slowly started comin' around
Now here I am
To tell the truth I did my best to tell myself
Hey dont forget the last time
And I stood there in disbelief
That how easily you got to me with your eyes
You reached across the table and you took my hand
I knew I was in trouble right there and then
When you broke the ice with a killer smile
Ordered us a drink and we talked a while
And I slowly started comin' around
Now here I am
Down on one knee
Am I getting to you baby?
The way you got to me
When you broke the ice with a killer smile
Ordered us a drink and we talked a while
And I slowly started comin' around
Now here I am
