

Blake Shelton, Neon Light

Ever since you left me
I've been riding around
Cranking up a little country gold heartbreak
Cried and dried these tears
I don't know how much more missing you I can take

I prayed, prayed, prayed
For a sin, sin, sin
Now there it's in the window
It's about time, time, time

There's a neon light at the end of the tunnel
It ain't all that nbbright
But even though it's subtle
It's got me feeling alright
Go on and make it double
There's a neon light at the end of the tunnel
Tunnel, tunnel

I take a shot of I don;t care what you're doing now
Chase that one with cold screw you
When that's done
I just might wash it down
With a big preacher of domeone new

That blonde, blonde, blondes
At the bar, bar, bar
See id she wants to try
And unbreake my heart, heart, heart

There's a neon light at the end of the tunnel
It ain't all that nbbright
But even though it's subtle
It's got me feeling alright
Go on and make it double
There's a neon light at the end of the tunnel
Tunnel, tunnel
