

Bleekhorn, Dragonfire

Everytime I look in Her eyes
The Dragon roars and I feel
Evey minute every day
I'm all shook up but never fallin

Thor's lightning strikes outside
A thousand clouds in a no man's land
A Viking on the edge of time
Lost in a land of iron

Only shadows will prevail
For your love I pray
I feel nothing, I've been told
I see it in your face
It can't be love!

When you're Dragonfire!
In a land of Dragonfire!
You can't let go
Dragonfire!
It's a land of Dragonfire

I'll put their soul on fire
I'll never back, I'm set to win
I'll raise my sword and shield in the name of the Gods
Under thunder and lightning

I see a thousand storms, I hear them sound
Heading my direction
I stand here firmly on the ground
Lost in a land of iron

Only shadows, will remain
At the dawn away
A million years of silence lasting
My dreams of war embraced
I can't be wrong!

'Cause I'm Dragonfire!
In a land of Dragonfire!
I can't let go
Dragonfire!
It's a land of Dragonfire
