

Bleeding Through, Reflection

Blindfolded only
To hear blank words of crooked smiles
Crawling out of my skin
To see a broken reflection of myself
Sacrifices at the altar
Pull the trigger
End this illusion
Go

A black candle burns for your cold heart
A single choir sings for your every sin
So banish me
So banish me, erase the demons
I see you grey eyes wink at the blade
This breath of life and I'll watch you burn

This breath of life and I'll watch you burn
Thirteen locks the door, thirteen steps to break your smile
Blindfolded only
To hear blank words of crooked smiles
Crawling out of my skin
To see a broken reflection of myself
Sacrificed at the altar
Pull the trigger
