Blink-182, Darkside

she's a girl dressed in black form another world live and breathes like a girl form another world she don't know my name she don't have the time of day celebrate medicate 'til we numb the pain in this storm

it's still dark
like it always rains she don't feel the same she don't have the time of day and I wait for her I don't care what you say no, I don't care what you say I am going to the dark site with you she's a girl

I look canc to what could have been her cloak and dagger mouth tastes like medicine she won't last the night spun out in the neon light you would leave but you need me to numb the pain you're possessed and you slept through another day you don't feel the same and I don't have the strength to stay
