

Blink-182, See You

I saw you, you were anxious
Like it meant that, that you hate this
After midnight you still want me around
(And I'm always down)
I held you, you were drinkin'
Never heard what you were thinkin'
Always felt your eyes make all the sounds
(And I'm just around)

Where'd you go? I can't sleep
I've never been this low, I'm in too deep

Don't let us be over, I'll wait here forever
You can't burn us with your flame
I'll see you anyway
Don't let words stay silent
Love so strong, we hide it
Your wild heart will never tame
I'll see you anyway

The witchin' of your hour
The drugs that you devour
The day you had when you were a kid
(Like we always did)
The fights that wouldn't break us
No strength left to contain us
I'm here to lift you off the ground
(Cause I'm always down)

Where'd you go? I can't sleep
I've never been this low, I'm in too deep

Don't let us be over, I'll wait here forever
You can't burn us with your flame
I'll see you anyway
Don't let words stay silent
Love so strong, we hide it
Your wild heart will never tame
I'll see you anyway

Dare you to say it's over
Dare you to say it's over
Dare you to just say anything
(Anything)
'Cause I'll just keep fucking up
Crawlin' back in the dead of night
I'm born again in the morning light
You'll never find me at all
(You'll never find me at all)

Don't let us be over, I'll wait here forever
You can't burn us with your flame
I'll see you anyway
Don't let words stay silent
Love so strong, we hide it
Your wild heart will never tame
I'll see you anyway
I'll see you anyway
