

Bliss 66, Ain't This The Feeling

I hear every word that you're trying to say well maybe, it's not ok and i see everything that you're trying to do but baby, i still know the truth

Ain't this the reason that you always give Ain't this the feelin that we always get
Ain't this the reason that you always give Ain't this the feelin Ain't this the feelin, yeah
ain't this the feelin

I don't want to be the fear that you're hiding from well maybe i could still be the one and i don't want to be the pain that you hold inside cause baby, it's not my time

Ain't this the reason that you always give
Ain't this the feelin that we always get
Ain't this the reason that you always give
Ain't this the feelin
Ain't this the feelin

I don't want to be the bed you lay on I don't want to be the rope you hang on I just want to be with you
I don't want to be the pills you're takin
I don't want to be the love you're fakin
I just want to be with you
With you
