

Blonde Redhead, Signs Along The Path

You never asked me what I wanted
You only asked me if I loved you
I never asked for what I needed
What I gave you, you didn't need

It's up to you to leave me
I'll collect the signs along the way
Along the path

I only give you what I'm made of
You take more than what I give you
You never asked me what I needed
What I gave you, you didn't need it

It's up to you to lead me
I'll collect the signs along the way
Along the path

It's up to you to lead me
I'll collect the signs along the way
Along the path
