

Blonde Redhead, Symphony Of Treble close your spine till you're a ball this is a good way to break off from the party pretend you're lost pretend you're dog i know you can chew a shoe like a piece of steak now you can hide now you can seek like a pleasure treasure hunter killers

...why go home?

stretch your face until it makes sense wrap your heart with all the nerves and veins ...am I not my body?
I seem to remember numbers figures details of this life now you can count now you can act like an enemy sister social worker

...are we damned?
