

Blonde Redhead, Violent Life

With a thousand kisses
Every moment is all mine come back this time

With a thousand kisses
one at time
you brought me crime

Every minute is mine

With a thousand kisses
---- I'm away
you brought me down

With a thousand kisses
every second I think of you
come back it's fine
bring some wine
and leave my mind
forever

With a thousand kisses
we share I don't care
I wish you down

With a thousand kisses
every second I think of you
come back it's fine
bring some wine
and leave my mind forever
