

bloodsimple, Suck It Up

I've been looking around,
Some people can't be found,
As if they've locked in solitude,
It's hard to get by,
on a handful of dimes,
it's impossible for positive attitude...

Unscarred Underdog...Hardcore is life

It's a fight to the top of the system son,
So suck it up and be a man,
Before your vision is dead...

Retribution is no question,
I will beat your fucking head,
Although the faces may change,
The song remains the same,
It's how you deal with the gratitude,
the Whiskey kicks in, the blood will begin,
And I will show all you punks how it is to lose...

Unscarred Underdog...Hardcore is life

It's a fight to the top of the system son,
So suck it up and be a man,
Before your vision is dead...

No... It's gone...
No... (4x)
I ain't feeling right,
I ain't feeling fine,
Right now I'm a motherfucking suicide (2x)
Suck it up (4x)

One, two, one, two, three, four
