

Bloops, Girls, Girls, Girls

Just got back from the Vietnam War
Seen more death than I ever seen before Little children with their eyes gouged out with bayonets

Girls, Girls, Girls
Wearing skimpy bikinis on the beach
Girls, Girls, Girls
California is the place to be
Sexy, blond girls
One of them might go out with me

Still dream about the Vietnam War
Lost more friends than ever before Seen a pregnant woman set on fire in the third trimester

Girls, Girls, Girls
Wearing next to nothing in the sand
Girls, Girls, Girls
I'm their lovin' ladies' man
Any kind of girl
I'm a female's biggest fan

Can't escape from the Vietnam War
Seen more pain than I ever seen before Soldiers shooting innocent people
You can never be sure

Girls, Girls, Girls
Going home to make out with me
Girls, Girls, Girls
Which one will it be?
Maybe you? (x6)
