

Bob Catley, Every Beat Of My Heart

Wish I could find the words I've wanted to say
It's such a crime, but words mean nothing
If you could see inside my heart then you'd find
That affairs of the heart and like the first day of spring
A brand new day but look behind the veiled disguise
There lies a paradise where we can stay

I'll stop the world revolving for you
And anything else you want me to
I'd fly you high and never let you fall
We'll leave the echoes of the night until the daybreak calls

With every beat of my heart
I'll be the one to show you that love still survives
With every beat of my heart
I'll be the spirit to lead you on, the glow of the setting sun
With every beat of my heart

Beyond the rainbow
There lies a pot of gold for you and I
But nothing lasts forever
Said the joker to the fool, it's such a lie

I'll be the key to eden for you
And do anything you want me to
I'll be your love, your light
The biggest, brightest star
I'll be your guide to emotion, the bridge to your heart

With every beat of my heart
I'll be the one to show you that love still survives
With every beat of my heart
I'll be the smile in your sadness, the truth in your lies
With every beat of my heart
I'll be the spirit to lead you on, the glow of the setting sun
With every beat of my heart

With every beat of my heart

With every beat of my heart
I'll be the one to show you that love still survives
With every beat of my heart
I'll be the smile in your sadness, the truth in your lies
With every beat of my heart
I'll be the spirit to lead you on, the glow of the setting sun
With every beat of my heart
