

Bob Dylan, 'Til I Fell In Love With You

Well, my nerves are exploding
And my body's tense
I feel like the whole world
Got me pinned up against the fence
I've been hit too hard
I've seen too much
Nothing can heal me now
But your touch
I just don't know what I'm gonna do
I was alright 'til I fell in love with you
Well, my house is on fire
Burning to the sky
Well, I thought it would rain
But the clouds passed by
Now I feel like I'm coming
To the end of my way
But I know God is my shield
And He won't lead me astray
Still I don't know what I'm gonna do
I was alright 'til I fell in love with you
Boys in the street
Beginning to play
Girls like birds
Flying away
When I'm gone
You will remember my name
I'm gonna win my way
To wealth and fame
And I just don't know what I'm gonna do
I was alright 'til I fell in love with you
Well junk is piling up
Taking up space
My eyes feel
Like they're falling off my face
Sweat falling down
I'm staring at the floor
I'm thinking about that girl
Who won't be back no more
I just don't know what I'm gonna do
I was alright 'til I fell in love with you
Well, I'm tired of talking
I'm tired of trying to explain
My attempts to please you
Were all in vain
Tomorrow night
Before the sun goes down
If I'm still among the living
I'll be Dixie bound
Still I just don't know what I'm gonna do
I was alright 'til I fell in love with you
