

Bob Marley & The Wailers, One Cup Of Coffee

One Cup of Coffee
Then I'll go

Though I just dropped by
To let you know
That I'm leaving you tomorrow
I'll cause you no more sorrow

One cup of coffee than I'll go

I brought the money
Like the lawyer said to do
But it won't replace the heartaches I caused you
It won't take the place of loving you
I know!

So, One Cup of Coffee
Then I'll go!
Tell the kids I came last night
And kissed them while they slept

Make my coffee sweet and warm
Just the way you used to lie in my arms

I brought the money
Like the lawyer said to do
But it won't replace the heartaches I caused you

It won't take the place of loving you
I know!

So, one cup of coffee
Then I'll go (Repeat 2x)
