

Bobby Womack, Dayglo Reflection (feat. Lana Del Rey)

The earth is but a dayglo reflection like turn that with rain you only light I'm falling to myself but I'm not going waiting for the day to bring me light

Is everything, is that everything, is everything
the only thing I ever dreamed is you and me
'cause I've layed down I take you down
and I love it every step of your way

Watching from a distant constellation eyes I can see the world unchanging hills there's still unfalling waiting... time with you is that love is the only truth

Is everything, is that everything, is everything
the only thing I ever dreamed is you and me
'cause I've layed down I take you down
and I love it every step of your way
