

BOKKA, In Love With The Dead Man

I'm In Love With The Dead Man
What's the worst that could happen
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
They say that you're in heaven

Will I turn stone if I sit on your grave long in hope?
Will I drown from the tears is I cry over you long enough?
Will I see above if I look at the stars long enough?
Are you with me right now
When my eyes can't open long enough?
Long enough

I'm In Love With The Dead Man
What's the worst that could happen
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
They say that you're in heaven
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
How come that I'm still breathing?
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
Can it still be called feeling?

Will I turn into dream if I sleep for a 1000 nights?
it is so unreal that I want have a feel of your touch again
Are you with me right now
can you give me a sign?
I just need to make sure that whenever you are away you are all right you're all right

I'm In Love With The Dead Man
What's the worst that could happen
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
They say that you're in heaven
I'm In Love With The Dead Man
How come that I'm still breathing?
I'm In Love
In Love With The Dead Man
