

Bon Jovi, Don't Do That To Me Anymore

If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times
You can't go on playing with people's minds
But you lied thinking that you'd get by Breaking hearts one by one in a line
Cause you're driving me crazy
I just can't go on making love to a woman
Who's been playing with me all along
So don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
I can count the times you really made me a fool
I guess what we've got was a different set of rules
Well you cried, thinking that I'd breakdown
But I'm not sure I need you hanging around
Cause you're driving me crazy
I just can't go on making love to a woman
Who's been playing with me all along
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
You won't have me to kick around anymore
I'm not a fool for you and that's for sure
No reason left for you to try to pretend
I told you before now I'll say it again
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
Don't do that to me anymore
