

Bonnie Owens, I'll Try Again Tomorrow

I let another hold me in his arms today I tried again to love somebody new
But when he tried to kiss my lips I turned away
The mem'ry of your love won't turn me loose
But I'll try again tomorrow I'll search for somebody new I'll try again tomorrow but today I'm still in love with you [steel]
Each time I try to find someone to take your place
I find myself pretending that it's you
No one else can drive your memory away I can't be free till I get over you
But I'll try again tomorrow...
