Bonnie Tyler, Against The Wind

Living in a danger zone A lonely man a lonely child So many miles from home Emotions running wild with me

Come take my heart, come feel the Burns of fire Come and break my heart and feel my Loving mind

Oh, against the Wind I'm flying Against the wind I'm crying This night was made for a lonely Don't break my heart tonight, no

Oh, against the wind I'm flying Against the wind I'm crying This night was made for a lonely Don't break my heart tonight, no

Oh you need a helping hand The times are getting tough Baby come and try again There's no living without love, in my heart It's hard for me, but it's harder to ignore it Oh my fantasy, come feel my love tonight

Oh against the wind I'm flying Against the wind I'm crying This night was made for a lonely Don't break my heart tonight, no

Oh against the wind I'm flying Against the wind I'm crying This night was made for a lonely Don't break my heart tonight Don't break my heart tonight, oh no
