Bonnie Tyler, Hold On

There's a storm coming I can see it in your eyes There's a heartache showing

That you can't discuss It's really tragic i can see it in your face You're losing something That you can't replace

So hold on Hold on Hold on 'Cause everything changes It'll soon be gone So hold on Hold on Just hold on Hold on 'Cause everything changes It'll soon be gone

There's a thunder rolling And it's heading this way There's a shadow showing In everything that you say There's a storm coming I can see it in your eyes Oh my heart is aching You know ya' You know you can't disguise

So hold on Hold on Hold on 'Cause everything changes It'll soon be gone

Oh but I, I, I Will still be here Oh and I, I, I But I, I, I Will still be here Oh, hold on Hold on Stick around and baby It'll soon be gone

Hold on Hold on Just hold on Everything changes It'll soon be gone
