

Booth And The Bad Angel, Stranger

Love strikes without a warning
I've lost control
My life's freefalling
Into new worlds
Born free the jail is waiting
I hold the key
Freedom's not easy
When the jailer is me

I'm the stranger who fell through time
I'm a stranger to these new highs
I'm a stranger to my old life

Lover this is my calling
Love knows no bounds
Free me I must be breaking
Breaking with sound
Drown me your love is pouring
No fear allowed
Hold me our love is soaring
Way past these clouds

I'm the stranger who fell through time
I'm a stranger to these new highs
I'm a stranger to my old life

Flying or am I falling
Upright or down
Free me been walled in
I'm lost in sound
