Boy Hits Car, Mr. Loh

Mr Loh singing As I can see the ocean breaking The ocean breaks on her self It will remind me that all the shit I'm feeling will soon be will be alright Its gonna be alright Mr. Loh he finds the water And it seems to wash this place off As the dolphins jump and play He speaks to us in the sand Do you know the meaning of life Or are you just a simple man And then he swims away Then he swims away Mr. Loh will you speak to me You're the only one I understand Mr. Loh will you sing to me You're the only one who makes sense Mr. Loh's not afraid to be naked But some men fall from grace They're not secure with themselves He doesn't measure people By things we consider important Can't seem to comprehend today So he swims away He swims away Come back Mr. Loh will you speak to me You're the only one I understand Mr. Loh will you sing to me You're the only one who makes sense Mr Loh talking: contact with nature, now thats very important All in society is so busy, busy, busy, busy Not much time Talk to yourself or talk to the nature As long as I can see the ocean break on her self As the dolphins jump and play It will remind me, that all the shit I'm feeling Will soon be alright Mr. Loh will you speak to me You're the only one I understand Mr. Loh will you sing to me You're the only one who makes sense Oh Mr. Loh Oh Mr. Loh This is gonna be alright Mr. Loh singing again
