

Boys Like Girls, Heart Heart Heartbreak

Heartbreak!
Heart heart heartbreak!
Girl don't say you love me when you're out the door,
Ohohoh yeah!
Cause I know things are different than they were before,
Ohohoh yeah!

Kill me with your kiss,
It's so hard to resist you,
When you look me in the eyes tonight,
And say we're headed for a heart heart heartbreak,
And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

Ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

You say we'd stick it out through the thick and thin,
Ohohoh yeah!
And when the walls came down,
You wouldn't let me in,
Ohohoh yeah!
We've been through it all,
My back's against the wall,
It's crashing down on me tonight,

Yeah and we're headed for a heart heart heartbreak,
And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

Ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

I'm sick and tired of this whole situation,
Here comes another fight,
Beating me down with the same conversation,
Don't say you love me tonight.

Heartbreak,
And I'm ready for a hearthheart heartbreak,
And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

Ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
I'm gonna gonna turn around and walk away,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.

Ready for a heart heart heartbreak,
And I don't ever ever wanna hear you say,
Don't say you love me, don't even,
Don't say you love me, you're leaving.
