

BoyWithUke, 2.9 Miles Away

I don't wanna go alone into my bed
Can you let me use your shoulder for my head
And you don't have to be outside
Cause I don't mind
I got room, and I got time for you
Instead of being so cold

You could stay
And we could binge watch movies night and day
I don't want you to be 2.9 miles away
(Aw)

Whenever I see you I feel like
Another deer or a caribou caught in headlights
Losing my focus on my own but it's alright
Cause I can see us dancing in the moonlight
Oh I get so cold without you
About to let you know that
I just renewed my subscription of Hulu

And baby, you could stay
And we could binge watch movies night and day
I don't want you to be 2.9 miles away
