

BoyWithUke, Tired Of Wanting You

I'm not sad, I'm not tired
But I feel I'm bad
I feel different from others
I wish I had what they have
But I'm just dreaming
Of randomness scheming
I got empty feelings
I wrestle my demons at night

I'm not sad
I'm just tired of wanting you
I want to say I think you're cute
But I can't say it now because
That's not my character
Maybe in another universe

I just think that it's funny
That I cannot bring
Myself from my conscience
To rid of my butterfly things
I don't feel right when I'm not with you
I'll keep you insight
But I won't pursue

I'm not sad
I'm just tired of wanting you
I want to say I think you're cute
But I can't say it now because
If I do ill never sleep if you say no to me
But you'll probably

I'm not sad
I'm just tired of wanting you
I want to say I think you're cute
But I can't say it now because
That's not my character
Maybe in another universe
