

Boyz II Men, Pass You By

She was like nothing I've ever known
Her eyes shined like diamonds in a field of snow
Man that destiny led her to me
Made her feel that life was now complete

Now a thousand days have passed and nights gone by
You can see the glow slowly fading from her eyes
Though she denies her pain and her dismay
Know I said this to her anyway

Don't have to stay with someone
That makes you cry (makes you cry)
You'll end up killing
All the love you have inside (have inside)
Can't hope to see the sun in you
If you don't open your eyes
Girl don't let real love pass you by
Don't let real love pass you by

I know you're nervous but take it from me
'Cause you deserve so much more than you receive
Listen to your heart and let it show
Don't hold onto your pain just let it go
Let it go

Don't have to stay with someone
That makes you cry (makes you cry)
You'll end up killing
All the love you have inside
Can't hope to see the sun in you
If you don't open your eyes (open your eyes)
Girl don't let real love pass you by
Don't have to stay with someone
That makes you cry (makes you cry)
You'll end up killing
All the love you have inside
Can't hope to see the sun in you
If you don't open (up) your eyes
Girl, don't let real love pass you by
Girl, don't let real love pass you by

You can find the love you need
If you set your heart free (free, free, free)

Don't

Don't have to stay (stay...)
With someone (with no one...)
Who makes you cry (that's gonna makes you cry)
Don't be (don't be) discouraged baby (baby)
Don't let real love pass you by

Don't have to stay with someone (you don't have to stay)
That makes you cry (makes you cry)
(if you were alone, no, no no)
You'll end up killing
All the love you have inside (have inside)
You, can't hope to see the sun in you
If you don't open your eyes
(you better know it, you better know it girl)
Girl don't let real love pass you by (don't stay with no one who's gonna makes)
Don't have to stay with someone

That makes you cry
You'll end up killing
All the love you have inside (don't, you, stop, loving yourself)
Can't hope to see the sun in you
If you don't open your eyes
Girl don't let real love pass you by
Don't you babe
Don't let no one take you away from love
Don't let real love pass you by
You stay alone and no one
No one, I know you will be all, alright
Don't let real love pass you by
You can tell don't even love you
Love you, love you, love you
Don't let real love pass you by
Yeah, yea, yea
Don't let real love pass you by
Oh, loving yeah
Don't let real love pass you by
Don't let, don't let, don't let, don't let Don't let, don't let, don't let
Don't let real love pass you by
Don't let, don't let
