

Boyzone, Strong Enough

Strong enough for two
Love see us through
Because of you
I know we're strong enough
Love see us through
Through and through
This love is strong enough for two

I believe in all that love can bring
Ha, I can see it's meant to be
And we'll be together

(together)
You see the best in me
(forever)
We were meant to be
'Cause I know it
Yes, I know there's always you to come home to

[CHORUS]

Like a child I want this love to grow
Oh, in my smile I tell it all
So we'll be

(together)
You see the best in me
(forever)
We were meant to be
'Cause I know it
Yes, I know there's always you to come home to

[CHORUS]

Strong enough for two

[RAP]
Strong enough cos our lives are tough
We've been together 'cause love's no bluff
All you sexy ladies put your hands in the air
Slam your body down, like you just don't care

(together)
You see the best in me
(forever)
We were meant to be
'Cause I know it
Yes, I know there's always you to come home to

[CHORUS X 3 to fade]
