

Boyzone, Walk On (So They Told Me)

Walk on, she's gone
Better leave the girl alone
Walk on, she's gone
Don't even call her on the telephone
Walk on, move on now
You've got to be strong, so they told me
But when I see you and my heart drops
I still remember and it won't stop
The night I kissed you on the rooftop
We reached up and touched the sky
But then you told me goodbye
Don't try to tell me that a man don't cry

[CHORUS]

My friends they want me to forget you
Pretend I never even met you
I try to smile but I bet you
Loneliness and tears still show
One thing that nobody knows
You hold my heart and you won't let it go

[CHORUS]

And if I get you back you'll see
All the love in me
So take my hand and
Your heart will grow stronger (heart will grow stronger)
Never, never, never let it go..

[CHORUS to fade]
