Braid, Always Something There To Remind Me

I walk along the city streets you used to walk along with me And every step I take reminds me of just how we used to be

Oh how can I forget you, girl

When there is always something there to remind me

Always something there to remind me

Shadows fall, I pass the small caf where we would dance at night

And I can't help recalling how it felt to kiss and hold you tight

How can I forget you, girl

When there is always something there to remind me

Always something there to remind me

I was born to love her

And I will never be free

You'll always be a part of me

Woah woah wooah

If you should find to miss the sweet and tender love we used to share

Just go back to the places where we used to go and I'll be there

Oh how can I forget you, girl

When there is always something there to remind me

Always something there to remind me

I was born to love her

And I will never be free

You'll always be a part of me

When there is always something there to remind me

Always something there to remind me
