

Brandi Carlile, Right On Time

Come back now, even if you call me out
You might be angry now,
Of course you are
I'm scared too,
Didn't mean to take it out on you
I know I always do,
You're the strongest person in the room
Turn back time

Help me to rewind
And we can find ourselves again
It's not too late

Either way
I lose you in these silent days
It wasn't right
But it was right on time

Don't look down
I can feel it when your heart starts pounding

It's beyond your control
You know it is
It's getting to the point where i can't carry on I ...

Either way
I lose you in these silent days
It wasn't right
But it was right on time
