

Brandon Heath, Don't Get Comfortable

Comfortable, don't get comfortable.
I am gonna move this mountain
Then I'm gonna move you in.

Yesterday
This is not yesterday.
You were standing on my shoulder
Now you're standing on the edge.
You've been looking for a sign all this time.

I am gonna show you what I mean
I am gonna love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

So afraid
But you don't have to be afraid
Even if you make mistakes
You know that I'll remain
You been looking for a sign all this time.
If you seek you'll find me every time.

So I am gonna show you what I mean
I am gonna' love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

NA na na na na na na nanaaah
NA na na na na na na nanaaah

Can you feel the call of love?
Is it moving you to be a child of God of love?
Is it reaching you?
It's everywhere the call of love.

I just wanna to show you what I mean
I just wanna to love like you've never seen
Do you want to live like you used to dream?
Then I've got a song for you

Cuz I am gonna show you what I mean
I am gonna' love like you've never seen
You are gonna live like you used to dream
This is your new song

NA na na na na na na nanaaah

You've got a new song

NA na na na na na na nanaaah
