

Brenda Lee, Funny feeling

Ah, I gotta feeling in my heart.
A feeling I've never felt in my heart.
Yes, it started when I saw you,
I could feel in my heart
Feel moving through and through
There's a feeling, a funny feeling has me reeling,
And a feeling something just for you, yes I do.
I'm feeling funny feelings just for you, ah right now
Oh, it's so hard to explain.
I said this feeling,
A funny feeling reeling through my brain
And it started when I saw you. I could feel it in my heart,
Feel it moving through and through
There's a feeling ah a funny feeling has me reeling.
And the feelings something just for you, just you.
Ah, I gotta a feeling in my heart.
A feeling I've never felt in my heart
Yes it started when I saw you.
I could feel it in my heart,
Feel it moving through and through
There's a feeling, a funny feeling, yeah it has me reeling
And a feeling something just for you, yes I do
I feel so funny, I gotta funny feeling in my heart,
It's a reeling reeling through my brain
Funny, funny, funny, funny, funny feeling,
Reeling through my brain, oh yeah.
