

Brenda Lee, Goodbye Love

Goodbye love, I guess your really gone
What a peaceful night to be caught in such a storm
I've stood crying at my door and I face a lonely day
I have said goodbye before, but I have never said

Goodbye love, I never thought I could
Lose myself in someone else just to fall
It felt so good
I guess I let my feeling's get the best of me
When you said goodbye love you became a memory

Ooh ohh-ohh ohh ohh-ohh, goodbye love
I sure am gonna miss ya
Everyday from now on I'll never will forget you
If someday, you think of me,
Just think how good it use to be
So goodbye love---goodbye love----
