Brian McFadden, All I Want Is You

You say you want diamonds on a ring of gold You say you want your story to remain untold All the promises we make from the cradle to the grave When all I want is you

You say you'll give me a highway with no one on it Treasure just to look upon it all the riches in the night You say you'll give me eyes in a moon of blindness A river in a time of dryness, a harbour in the tempest

All the promises we make from the cradle to the grave When all I want is you

You say you want your love to work out right To last with me through the night You say you want diamonds on a ring of gold Your story to remain untold, your love not to grow cold

All the promises we break from the cradle to the grave When all I want is you, is you (All I want is you) (All I want is, all I want is, all I want is, all I want is you, is you, is you, is you When all I want is you
