

Bring Me The Horizon, Ludens

some refuse the future some refuse the past either way it's messed up if we can't unplug the fact that a world covered in cables was never wired to last so don't act so surprised when the program starts to crash

how do I

form a connection
when we can't even shake hands?
you're like a phantom greeting me
we plot in the shadows
hangout in the gallows
stuck in a loop for eternity

do you know why
the flowers never bloom?
will you retry
or let the pain resume?

I need a new leaden
we need a new Luden
so come outside
it's time to see the tide
it's out of sight
but never out of mind
I need a new leaden

sticks and stones may break my bones but soon the sting will pass but names can dig so many graves you won't know where to stand

I don't feel secure no more unless i am being followed and the only way to hide myself it's to give 'em one hell of a show

the flowers never bloom?

it's out of sight
