

Britney Spears, Before The Goodbye

Laying here in your arms and you hold me tight, tight
Trying not to watch the clock
Tick-ticking as the time goes by, by
And I know that you best be on your way
But I'm wishing I could make you stay
Stay with me for a while

Though you're near
Still, I wanna make it clear
Love, I will always be around

You're leaving, I'm waiting
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye
I feel It, already
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye

Kind of hard for me to let you know
Seldom let my feelings show
How much I will miss in you (miss in you)
All the little things that make me weak
Your eyes and the way you speak
Without you baby I'm not me (I'm not me)

Though you're near
Still, I wanna make it clear
Love, I will always be around

You're leaving, I'm waiting
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye
I feel It, already
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye x3

You're leaving, I'm waiting
Forgive me
I'm always missing you
Before the goodbye
