

Britney Spears, Lovely

youre the sweet dreams that soothe me when i cant fall asleep youre the field
in the middle of the city
im rushing by
in the speed of light youre the strong resolution when i found all the piece your the church bells a ringin in the evening
im always quiet
your whisper comfort
bless my heart
i get so weak
oh uyoure lovely lovely youre the center of my universe my universe
a thousand times
i look around your heart why ohh youre lovely lovely
a million ways
i cannot explain
youre lovely
youre the soft words that touch me when i just cannot speak youre the breeze on the ocean in the morning
im whining when
to greet the day
youre the flowers i remember singin into me
colors true
are cold today
prize and week
soft and weak
and new day sun
make me see
a thousand times
i look your heart why
ohhh youre lovely lovely
a million ways
youre lovely
i understand
that there may be grief and there my be pain
but i am aware
you blind the darkness
and there you are the colors
youre lovely
